

Tunnels & Trolls Adventures: Phone App from MetaArcade brings in new players world wide

by s. CROMPTON

At GenCon 2017, MetaArcade released the free Tunnels & Trolls Adventures App that can be played on most iPhones or Android smartphones or tablets. Combining rich interactive fiction with classic RPG game play for mobile, Tunnels & Trolls Adventures is filled with tough decisions, devious traps, and monstrous encounters where the risks are only rivaled by the rewards. Roll your stats, choose your kindred and begin your legendary adventures. It plays a lot like the classic T&T solos except now there are sound effects and the dice rolling is built right into the game. At this point MetaArcade has released 20 different solo adventures and more are released every few weeks.

The T&T Phone app has been a big hit with those that are familiar with T&T and those that are not. And Flying Buffalo has definitely seen a spike in sales since the release of the app and because the game is available in many countries all over the world, there has also been increased interest in publishing the T&T rules and solos in other languages. Right now a Spanish edition of T&T is being translated and another team is working on a Portuguese edition. There is already recent French, Japanese and Polish editions of Tunnels & Trolls available in Europe and Asia. And the trend sees no sign of letting up.

Flying Buffalo is working hard to keep up with the demand and recently ran out of the second printing of the rules. They are now reprinting the hardback edition for rerelease. They also have an expanding line of solo and GM adventures, the most recent being the T&T Adventures Japan book. Next up will be a new gm adventure and additional updated reprints of some of the classic solos, including Sewers of Oblivion, Elven Lords and Uncle Ugly's Underground.

Yes, Tunnels & Trolls is in the midst of a world-wide rebirth. T&T's easy to understand rules and encouragement of creativity in play, lends itself well to today's gamers.

Please visit Flying Buffalo, page 78, Thank you